

Dutch Caribbean eAIP Amendment Services 2022 Modified and eAIP AIRAC AMDT Publications

Effective date: 01 JAN 2022

eAIP Amendment Service 2022 Revised

DC-ANSP Dutch Caribbean Aeronautical Information Service unit's eAIP Amendment Service for 2022 will be modified. Please take note of the following information provided below.

The DC-ANSP Dutch Caribbean AIS unit is charged with the publication of the elements of the Dutch Caribbean Aeronautical Information Products, which contains aeronautical information for the following Dutch Caribbean territory islands: Aruba, Bonaire, Curaçao, Saba, Sint Eustatius and Sint Maarten.

The elements of the Dutch Caribbean Aeronautical Information Publications Products, including AIP Supplements (SUPs) and Aeronautical Information Circulars (AICs) are available on the DC-ANSP's website in the AIS webpage, and are transmitted as well via e-mail to registered clients.

Valid NOTAMs are included in the monthly NOTAM Summary, also transmitted via e-mails to registered clients.

Client registration and yearly registry upkeep

The DVD copy of the Dutch Caribbean Aeronautical Information Publications Products are per effective date 01 JAN 2022 no longer available. The online versions of the eAIP will be available and remain free of charge. Hard copy remains not available, the eAIP and/or its related products may or can be printed by the user at own discretion.

Clients who are in the Dutch Caribbean AIS' client registry and wish to remain listed, need not to reregister on a yearly base, unless changes are required. Provide changes via this link: <http://dc-ansp.org/eAIS/subscribe/> and indicate change.

Clients who want to be removed from the Dutch Caribbean AIS' client registry need to UNSUBSCRIBE by clicking here (or via the unsubscribe link in the emails received), and indicate unsubscribe.

To register for the timely receipt of notifications to the Aeronautical Information Publications Products of the Dutch Caribbean territory islands, please use the following direct link:

<http://dc-ansp.org/eAIS/subscribe/>.

eAIP AIRAC AMDT Publications

Publications are either of Normal or of Major change level. If an AIRAC cycle has been published with Major Change information, no Normal publication is available for that same AIRAC cycle number, and vice versa.

DC-ANSP Dutch Caribbean AIS publishes on even AIRAC Cycles only (unless regional implementations and/or CAA directed require an odd cycle to be used)!

This AIC 07/21 – Dutch Caribbean eAIP Amendment Services 2022 Modified and eAIP AIRAC AMDT Publications hereby supersede AIC 06/21.

Please contact the DC-ANSP Dutch Caribbean AIS unit for any additional information or requests via the above provided contact information.
